What is a Target Market Determination?

A Target Market Determination (TMD) is a legally required document that seeks to give our customers, employees, product distributors, or any other interested parties an understanding of the class of customer for whom the product, as described below, has been designed, how the product is distributed, and related matters.

This document is not intended to provide financial advice and does not take into account any person's individual objectives, financial situation or needs.

Related Disclosure Documents

This TMD should be read in conjunction with the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), relevant product Terms and Conditions and Interest Rate Schedule when considering whether or not this product is right for you. You can obtain a copy of the PDS or Terms and Conditions at themutual.com.au/help-support/here-to-help/important-documents/, and the Interest Rate Schedule themutual.com.au/help-support/tools-services/interest-rates/, at any branch or by calling 1300 688 825.

Financial Situation

The financial situation of the target market are customers that have funds available in an eligible account and require card access to these funds and the ability to pay fees associated with card usage (as set out in the PDS).

Appropriateness Statement

The product is considered appropriate for the target market as its key attributes directly align with and support the likely objectives, financial situation, and needs of consumers in the target market, as described in this determination.

Distribution

The following distribution measures are in place:

Distribution Channels

This product is designed to be distributed through the following means:

- The Mutual Bank's employee assisted channels including in person and over the phone;
- The Mutual Bank's online channels which may include our website, Mobile App and Internet Banking; and
- Approved Third Party Distributors (e.g. Mortgage Brokers).

These distribution channels are considered appropriate given the broad nature of the target market.

Marketing and Promotion

Distributers must only market and promote the product through the following approved channels:

- Public advertising platforms, including television, radio, internet (such as social media), billboards, physical banners, brochures, and other publicly accessible marketing materials;
- In-person recommendations that direct customers to approved marketing materials, including communications within branches and through authorised referrer networks; and
- Any other communication channels approved by the issuer, such as telephone, email, and social media.

These marketing and promotion channels are considered appropriate given the broad nature of the target market.

Distribution Conditions and Restrictions

- The customer must meet the eligibility criteria for the product;
- The product can only be distributed by employees or approved Third Party Distributers that have completed relevant training to meet The Mutual Bank's qualification requirements and who are required to follow policies, procedures and processes in relation to distribution; and
- All distribution channels are monitored for adherence to distribution conditions and restrictions.

The distribution conditions and restrictions are appropriate to direct distribution of the product to customers in the target market.
